Get Ready for the CLASS OF 2013!

Since 1977, the Washington State Kiwanis Law Enforcement Youth Camp has been teaching high school juniors and seniors about careers in law enforcement.

Along the way, the students learn teamwork, discipline, leadership, a bit of marching and even how to make a bed! Meanwhile, friendships are made that can last a lifetime, while some students make enough of an impression on the instructors and counselors that they earn a letter of recommendation for their future job applications.

Do you know a high school junior or senior that might be interested in a career in law enforcement? Would this student benefit from hearing speakers from, for example:

- Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife, Enforcement Division
- The Federal Bureau of Investigation – Careers and Crime Scene Processing
- The Auburn Police Department – How to be a Chief of Police
- The Enforcement Division of the Liquor Control Board – Youth and Liquor and Tobacco Enforcement
- The Thurston County Sheriff's Office Dive Team – Water Safety
- Tenino Police Department - Surviving Critical Incidents
- Burlington Northern Railroad Police
- Washington State Patrol – on Officer Survival
- Washington State Patrol – on Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs
- Washington State Patrol – on police ethics
- Mason County Sheriff Casey Salisbury on how to be a county sheriff
- Washington State Patrol – on hiring processes
- Renton Police Department – on acing job interviews and practical boards
- Washington State Parks – on law enforcement in state parks

These are some of the classes routinely offered each year during the week long Kiwanis Law Enforcement Youth Career Camp.

If you or someone you know would like to attend the camp – APPLY NOW! Download the application form from the WSP website: www.wsp.wa.gov Community Outreach, Kiwanis Law Camp. Get your principal's and teachers signatures. Write a short essay on why you want to attend the camp. And, SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION ON OR BEFORE MAY 10, 2013.

About 1/3 of the student applicants get a local Kiwanis Club to sponsor them – i.e pay the $500 camp fee, before they submit their application. The other 2/3rds of the students wait until they receive a notice of acceptance – by the end of May, and then hustle during June to get a Kiwanis sponsor. Both ways work!

Bunk space is limited! We can take 26 students for 2013, so apply as early as possible. If you get turned down this year because of lack of space, and will be a senior next year, you will have priority for next year.

KLEYC NEWSLETTER

This is a semi-annual newsletter, published in February/March and August/September of each year to keep counselors, instructors, former cadets and other interested persons aware of what is happening with our camp. If you know of someone who would like to get this newsletter, please send their e-mail address to: janiceleebritt@comcast.net and ask to be added to the KLEYC e-mail list.

As Kiwanians we know, it's sometimes difficult for a club to raise and donate $500. Donations from other clubs, businesses, and parents are also accepted. We are a 501c3 corporation, so all donations / sponsorships are tax deductible.

Where are they now? Keeping Track.

Jose Rocha, Class of 2011 has completed U S M C basic training!

Carmen Arroyo, Class of 2007, graduated from the 100th WSP Academy in December, 2012. She is now one of the new WSP Troopers on our roads.

Eric Rasmussen (sorry – no photo) also from the Class of 2007, graduated from the 100th WSP Academy in December 2012. He is also now one of the new WSP Troopers on our roads.

A morning run on the drive course at the 2012 camp.

Many thanks to our sponsors! For the 2012 Class, we had sponsorships from the following clubs and businesses:
